Informed Consent Form for Non-Pool Participants

You are invited to take part in a research study named Perception Research. The study is designed to learn more about how we perceive things in our everyday life. The research is being conducted by Professor Denis Pelli who is the principal investigator, as part of faculty research, and by Aenne Briemann as part of her training.

If you agree to be in this study, you will be asked to: read, perceive, and/or make judgments about various things such as paintings or music. Your participation will take about 6 hrs. You will be paid ~~$10~~ per hour for completing this study. $20

There are no known risks associated with your participation in this research beyond those of everyday life. Although you will receive no direct benefits for participation in this study, it may make you more aware of how knowledge is discovered in psychology and help the investigator better understand the nature of sensory perception.

Taking part in this study is voluntary. Not taking part or withdrawing after the study has begun will not affect your grade or academic standing in any way. If you withdraw at any time only partial payment will be given. You have the right to skip or not answer any questions you prefer not to answer.

Confidentiality of your research records will be strictly maintained by assigning your data an arbitrary letter code in any publications. The de-identified data from the study will be kept at least 5 years after publication, as recommended by the American Psychological Association. De-identified data may also be posted online when research results are published.

If there is anything about the study or taking part in it that is unclear or that you do not understand, or if you have questions or wish to report a research-related problem, you may contact the principal investigator, Professor Pelli at (646) 258-7524, denis.pelli@nyu.edu, 6 Washington Place, Room 279, New York, NY 10003, or Aenne Briemann at aenne.briemann@nyu.edu. For questions about your rights as a research participant, you may contact the University Committee on Activities Involving Human Subjects (UCAIHS), New York University, (212) 998-4808 or ask.humansubjects@nyu.edu, 665 Broadway, Suite 804, New York, NY 10012.

Check one: ☐ I am at least 18 years of age.
☐ I am not yet 18 years of age, so I include a signed Parental Permission form.
